Preamble

Lion's Main Art Collective is a community of queer & trans artists that showcases innovative interdisciplinary art. It fosters artistic growth and collaboration in a creative and supportive space.

Article I Name

This collective is named "Lion's Main Art Collective", hereafter referred to as "Lion's Main" or simply, the "collective".

Article II Precedence

The governing precedence of the collective is:

1. This collective constitution.
2. Any Bylaws the collective may enact.

Article III Objectives

This chapter is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and literary purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding Section of any future federal tax code. The objectives of Lion's Main are:

SECTION III.1. TODO

Article IV Government

SECTION IV.1. OFFICERS The collective must maintain, at a minimum, a Treasurer and Historian. Additional officers may be prescribed by the collective Bylaws.

SECTION IV.2. COMMITTEES The collective must maintain, at a minimum, an Art Committee. Additional committees may be prescribed by the collective Bylaws.

SECTION IV.3. MEMBERS Members include everyone who has attended at least six art committee meetings, continue to average one a month, and have at some point requested to be a member; as tracked by the Historian. A vote to remove a member may be called by the officer corps, requires a two third vote of present members, and follows the standard election procedure as defined in the Bylaws.

Article V Dissolution

In the event that the collective ceases to exist, any residual assets are bequeathed to an organization dedicated to one of the exempt purposes outlined in Article III. For the purposes of this section “residual assets” do not include any assets belonging to joint ventures. Assets belonging to joint ventures must be left to the adjoining parties to be disposed of at their discretion. Should any of these result in assets being distributed to an organization not dedicated to one of these exempt purposes, those assets will be instead distributed to one or more such purposes on a case-by-case basis.

Article VI Amendments

SECTION VI.1. PROPOSAL Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed by any member of the collective.

SECTION VI.2. NOTICE Amendments to the Constitution must be presented to the membership at least TODO weeks before the meeting at which a vote is to occur. Amendments may be amended during the meeting without violating this requirement.

SECTION VI.3. ADOPTION Any proposed amendment may be adopted by the approval of at least TODO of those present and entitled to vote at a collective voting meeting.

Article VII Enactment

This Constitution was proposed by the Lion’s Main Art Collective Membership with and was enacted TODO by their ratification.
